Closing date for the submission of hotel accommodation orders is the 05th October 2009. Applications received after this date will be handled on a request basis and bookings will be made subject to contingent availability. The room rates mentioned above are per night and include breakfast buffet and all local taxes. If the hotel required is fully booked we will book the best alternative. Changes and cancellations to bookings must be advised through our office direct. Overnight stay costs are payable direct to the hotel. Please be aware that the contract conditions of the hotels themselves apply, in particular but not limited to payment conditions in the event of a subsequent cancellation. The terms and conditions of booking as well as of cancellation of the booked hotel will be advised to you under separate cover.

The booking of hotel rooms will be made by WellPart. WellPart is neither a tour operator within the meaning of §§ 651 a ff BGB nor is WellPart a party to the accommodation contract. The booking will constitute a contract between you and the hotel providing the accommodation. WellPart only accepts liability for its intervention in effecting the booking. This liability is limited to cases of gross negligence. Please send this order once only! We will not accept responsibility for any costs which may arise as a result of a double booking, if you submit your order more than once without specification that it has been sent to us once before. On receipt of this order we will send you your booking confirmation(s) as soon as possible without further consultation, always subject to availability of accommodation. The booking confirmation represents a valid and binding obligation on your part.

We hereby make the following firm order for accommodation and confirm that we undertake to abide by the terms and conditions of booking set out below:
